For the pussies who say 'calling doesn't work!!' I called my congressman and Senator and said I will be in DC Jan 5th and want to swing by his office to see him in person and talk about the stolen election. I have about 100 people coming with me. HIS ASSISTANT CALLED BACK!!!! They are open and will be in their offices!!! So politely call and say 'hey, just wanted to come by and talk to you about these election irregularities'. Then be prepared to bring 'the evidence'!!!! SCARE THE SHIT OUT OF THEM. Polite, calm and reasonable with 100 close friends headed to Washington is a lot scarier than threats and screeching. Try it.

Edit: You Reps get you tickets to the inauguration too!

Well, it is Our Building; none of those folks chipped on construction costs, I'm figuring I did, and have; and, maybe will again. You're failing to understand the most basic hold they have on you. We elect those idiots. They do not; nor ever have, made an honest dollar all their live long lives. Their only power over us is what we have granted them. IT IS NOT THEIR BUIDING. IT IS OUR BUILDING. ALL OF DC WE BUILT.

The problem with this is we are not organized, and normies aren't bold enough. We would need millions to obviously, openly, obnoxiously declare no more tax payments. That would snowball. Until then it's just lone wolves that the IRS and other will come get one by one and throw away. Doomers hate "dates" that set up plans, but I guarantee if we declared as one United Pede to stop paying taxes on a certain day we could actually make something happen

This goes into my point a bit though. No one will actually do it because of one internet comment, no matter how well intentioned. It has

- ▼ to be made into a line-in-the-sand event. There has to be mob mentality levels of confidence. No one will do it unless they know they are not only not alone, but part of a group. Has to be big to happen and has to be vocally planned and announced

1 Probably not a popular opinion but I like their guns. They are stupid simple even if not the most accurate. Easy to maintain and dirt cheap.

2 It is funny that as crafty as the snakes are, there are some big things they overlook. Such as the fact that 400 million or whatever guns have been sold in the last six months. Bit of an oopsie, maybe. We'll see.

2 Don't recall ever seeing this Simpsons episode, but if I had to guess: Moe caused Homer to go missing, Moe married Marge, Months pass, Homer returns and is about to kill Moe.

If I'm accurate, then this is a spot on meme. Well done, pede!

2 These crooked politicians care more about foreign countries and art centers than they do about the American people. We need to get rid of all of them. They are all complicit in this disgusting "relief" bill. Keep my "substantial" $600 and veto the shit out of this bill.

All I know is It wasn't enough. He is owned forever.
These people like Biden, comey, Clinton, Brennan, have cheated for so long and always gotten away with it. They have no expectation of being held accountable.
The failure of the media from being a watchdog is amazing to me. The failure of the people to see the failure of the media is equally amazing.

1 That sounds nice but tbh I've seen a lot of talk from this site, but not much action. If Jan6 turns out to be just another rally.. Just another social event with flags waving and people high-fiving each other then I'm going to be very disappointed. You get the government you deserve and if everybody is just going to sit around and make memes instead of getting their hands bloodied then you deserve the congress that you have. Simple as.
